FRENCH COASTGUARD: You are calling for an emergency at sea. This is French Coastguard. Please hold the line. (Some words of French spoken)

DOVER COASTGUARD: Bonjour, Gris Nez, Dover.

FRENCH COASTGUARD: Yes, Dover.

DOVER COASTGUARD: Hi there, good morning. We've had a call from Dover Port Operations' Room that they've received a telephone call from a boat which we believe is a migrant boat. And when we've called the number it comes with an international ring tone and then it cuts out. So it sounds like it's still in French waters.

FRENCH COASTGUARD: Yes, and you have position?

COASTGUARD: No, unfortunately it wasn't a position but I have a phone number and our reference number for you.

FRENCH COASTGUARD: Can you send me an email with all the information for that?

DOVER COASTGUARD: Okay, will do.

FRENCH COASTGUARD: Yes, many thanks.

DOVER COASTGUARD: Okay, no problem. Do you have any migrant incidents yet?

FRENCH COASTGUARD: Yes, we have four dinghy in water for the moment.

DOVER COASTGUARD: Okay, can you send a copy of your tracker, please?

FRENCH COASTGUARD: Yes, okay.

DOVER COASTGUARD: Okay, merci. A bientôt. Bye.

FRENCH COASTGUARD: Bye.
