Morning all,

@Simon Freese, sounds like a miracle! Thank you for confirming.

If we could confirm that Name also have access to this. If they do have issues, then I suspect it must be I.T. from your side since we have granted you access by passing on the appropriate links.

Please keep me updated so that we plan further communications and actions in relation to the tracker to ensure that HMCG and BF have clear guidance on how we are going to be using this tracker from now on pending a couple of new tweaks.

Kind Regards,

All,

It looks like the SharePoint link has been set up and we're good to go. Would one of the CG team try sharing a document with us and we'll see what happens
